A. INTRODUCTION

Nowadays literature became the thing that interesting and appears an improvement of that. Talk about literature itself is the way to increase our knowledge and the way to appreciate the literary work which has created by the author. As we know that there are several kinds in literature such as novel, novella, drama or play and poetry. In this occasion we available to discusses about the comparison between two literary works from English and Indonesia. The first which has title “Oscar and The Lady in Pink” by Eric-Emmanuel Schmitt and the second is “Surat Kecil Untuk Tuhan” by Agnes Davonar. It looks like interesting to analyze both of the stories because from that we found something that makes the story could be compared. The main point which is support is the main character from each story.
Oscar and The Lady in Pink itself actually is the novella which uses French language, but fortunately has been translated into English and publish in 2002 which consist 58 pages. The story is the third series in the “Le Cycle de l’Invisible” which tells about world religious. That is composed of the letters of Oscar in his rest of life after he met Mammie Rose. The letters has purpose to fill his loneliness and describes about twelve days before he die caused of leukemia or cancer.

Then about “Surat Kecil Untuk Tuhan” by Agnes Davonar also tells about the teenager who has cancer and die caused of it. The novel which is published in 2008 inspires the producer to create a film version. This story is based on the real story from a girl named Keke. Novel which is consist of 232 pages success became the bestseller and amused the reader and also the viewer of the film.

Based on both of stories which are from different place, culture and language. It is interesting to compare what happen in both stories by using the comparative literature. The analysis would be in the intrinsic element of the story such as character, theme, plot, setting place and time and conflict. Comparative literary itself is the theory or the way to compare the literary work which has something to compare such as the story, the culture, politic and economic, character itself or many things. According to the definition of comparative literature given by Bijay Kumar Dass is very simple vivid and understandable:

The simple way to define comparative literature is to say that it is a comparison between the two literatures. Comparative literature analyses the similarities and dissimilarities and parallels between two literatures. It further studies themes, modes, conventions and use of folk tales, myths in two different literatures or even more.

Then the other definition of comparative literature is from Manikar. He has explained the phenomena in different words by saying:

Comparative literature studies can include the application of the usual aesthetic values to a literature an understanding of the different literary movement and tendencies of an age, studies of themes and idea that appear in different literatures, and finally the study of genre, of structures and patterns. But perhaps the most important of all are the literary relations.

Comparative literature is a study of relationships between two or more literatures. For example - English literature, American literature, all are written in English language. The study of comparative literature encompasses all these literatures in its scope.

1. Method

Comparative literature is the main theory used in this study. As explained before that, it is the way to make a comparison and find the similarities or the differences between two literary works. The method of this study is descriptive qualitative research which is collecting the data by the word or sentence in the novel and novella or the other sources which suitable with the meaning. The data which used in this research is from the novella entitled Oscar and The Lady in Pink and novel entitled “Surat Kecil Untuk Tuhan.” The point of this research is to find the similarities and differences between two literary works and analyze the intrinsic element of that.

But Mamie Rose tries to accompany him and make him better. Actually Oscar never knows about God. He thought that God never exists. Mammie Rose though and tells him about God and make him believe about God and think that God is exist.

Kiki is one of Keke’s family members who suffering of sore eyes, indeed at that time the sore eyes being widely attacked students in Keke’s school. Then it is also influence to Keke. Her eyes became red and bigger. It is looks not normally like before. And finally the doctor was said that Keke having a cancer in serious condition.

6. Climax

Oscar and Mammie Rose became closer and Oscar only trust in her. He tells many things to her and shares everything. Mammie Rose tries to make a game for him who influences his rest of life to be better. This game makes Oscar’s age add ten years in every day. So that he could across his rest of life become the real man as it should be. He is pretend like a normal man in life. He is also pretend as his Peggy’s husband by a fake marriage status through the game. Peggy is the girl who has blood illness and lives in one of room in the same hospital with Oscar. In his 40 years old he is pretend like has second puberty like a real men as it should be.

Keke’s cancer became so serious and makes people around her feels worried about, but her father keep trying to find the solution of that. After doing the alternative medicine, Keke’s condition does not improve. Then Keke’s met a good professor named Mr. Mukhlis, she is doing chemotherapy treatment. The chemotherapy is successful, although makes Keke’s loss her beautiful hair.

7. Falling action

Oscar feels that he is getting old and tired. He thinks that he has done everything in his lif and feels complete. He feels lucky and happy to have Mammie Rose who helps him to face the rest of life and introduces him to God, so that he feels like God with him anytime. He said thanks to God for coming in his life and makes all be better.

The cancer had disappeared, but the cancer came back and spreading. But Keke’s father keeps trying. On the other hand Keke keep struggles of her condition by share the happiness to the people around her. She began to realize that her life would not be much longer. She keeps learned many things in her rest of life.

8. Resolution

Over all Oscar feels that he has done with his life. He is die and feeling in peace. All people feel sad especially Mammie Rose who always with him. No one knows when he die and Oscar face his death by himself. Before he die, he also write the last letter to God and say that he is already a hundred and ten and feels really old and beginning to die. And he had sign as his wrote “only God is allowed to wake me up”. That is make Mammie Rose compassion and sad if she is remember about the boy who she loved, Oscar.
After trying so hard with no results, then Keke’s father started to give up of Keke’s condition which became so weak. Currently Keke admitted to hospital, and she was comma for a long time. After comma, finally she sleep peacefully forever. Her father and others family feels sad and there is nothing to do. When Keke closed her eyes in the last time, the whole of hospital near her room feel shock and sad of Keke’s death.

9. The Similarities and The Differences of Conflict

1. Oscar in Oscar and The Lady in Pink story and Keke in Surat Kecil Untuk Tuhan has the same illness and that is a cancer. The thing that make different is Oscar has leukemia and Keke has rhabdomyosarcoma.

2. Both of the stories telst about the main character who has illness and they write a letter to God.

3. Oscar wrote a letter about his day. He is like write a diary book and announces everything that happened in his life to God.

4. Keke only wrote one and only a letter to God before her death comes.

5. Oscar fails in his operation while Keke ever been safe from the operation and continue her life for a while, until the illness came again in her life and make her passes away.

6. Oscar never known about God from his parents before, it is because his parents are atheist. Oscar knows about God from Mammie Rose.

7. While Keke basically knows about God and live in the family whose religious.

8. Oscar lives in hospital with people whose has illness like him, while Keke could spends her time to lives with her family and gather with her friends in the school.

9. Oscar feels being ignored by his parents is because his parents busy to work and only visit him on weekend, while Keke got many attention and affection from her family especially her parents although her parents has separated.
10. Oscar was died after he feels weak in hospital and it is suitable as his doctor said about his condition, while Keke died directly when she was comma in hospital.

C. CONCLUSION

Based on the discussion above, the result could be conclude that between novella entitle Oscar and The Lady in Pink by Eric-Emmanuel Schmitt and novel Surat Kecil Untuk Tuhan by Agnes Davonar have the similarities and the differences. The similarities and the differences that found in both of the stories include the intrinsic element such as the character, theme, plot, setting time and place and conflict. It could be mentioned that both of the stories have the same idea and theme is because both oh them tell about the teenagers who try to be strong and keep struggle in their rest of life with the same illness (cancer). The main character became the supporting key point in this analysis is because from what they do we know that both of the stories have the similarity and the main idea about the teenager who was wrote a letter to God to ask something, say thanks or even fill their loneliness.
